

THE MERCEDES-BENZ CLUB OF AMERICA

The Mercedes-Benz Club of America was established in 1956. It now has over 23,000 members in 80 local sections throughout the U.S. and Canada. These local groups organize hundreds of events, from social gatherings to tech sessions, from car show to driving events. A not-for-profit organization, the MBCA is independent of Mercedes-Benz USA and DaimlerChrysler, yet they are proud of their support.

Knowledgeable MBCA members provide advice on service, restoration, and more. Tips on car care and maintenance help you maintain your automotive investment. Experts on MBCA's Technical Committee provide quick, thorough answers to questions. MBCA's Technical Reprints contain articles from The Star Magazine, which is the club's national magazine. A variety of high quality merchandise is available via the Club Store, and the national office in Colorado Springs, Colorado is always ready to help you.

The Star Magazine.....Membership in the Mercedes-Benz Club of America includes a subscription to the Club's bi-monthly national magazine, The Star. Inside each issue, you will find in-depth information including news from Mercedes-Benz USA, club events, articles on restorations and new car road tests. You'll also find an expansive classified section as well as advertisements from those providing products and services for your Mercedes. Combined with its beautiful photography and rich, glossy look, The Star is the kind of magazine you'll not just read once, but one you will treasure for years to come.
