View Through The Star

by Rubin Howard, President

Since I joined the section in 2018, I have seen the Mercedes-Benz Club of America Peachtree Section grow into an incredible community full of passion, interests, history, and notoriety. Many of you reading this have been members for many years, and I thank you for your continued loyalty to MBCA; as well as your commitment to be a part of the section. For those of you who are new, I sincerely welcome you to our club and hope that you are here to stay. You will find that while the cars are what unite us, the people are what make for great memories. While the Mercedes-Benz 300SEL 6.3 is a fantastic car, if it weren't for Aufrecht and Melcher... the magic of AMG would not exist.

I believe the same stands for the many members, volunteers, officers, & directors of MBCA Peachtree. I am so incredibly lucky to have had the opportunity to get to know each and every one of you, whilst continuously meeting new members at every event I go to. It is a privilege to become the President of MBCA Peachtree. We have all worked so incredibly hard through thick and thin to not only keep our section afloat, but to be able to see it prosper. Over the past five years, I have witnessed a dramatic transformation of nearly every aspect of our organization. Read More

PCA Autocross 10/8

Karting at Lanier - 12/3

The fourth PCA autocross of the year is on October 8th at the huge parking lot at Atlanta Motor Speedway. Great fun, a great way to become a better driver and to learn your car's medium speed performance limits in a safe environment.

Don't doddle; they tend to fill up quickly. The dates for the rest of the year: , August 13, September 24, October 8 and November 5.

These are well run, safe events that typically give you 10 runs – much better than most autocrosses, time to learn the course and experiment. You should plan to bring a helmet, though they do tend to have some loaner helmets available.

LUNCHEON

DEC 2, 2023

11:30 AM

Ernie Smallman III and Pat Duer, Event Planners

Legend is at the end of a long hard day tending sheep Sean and his little white bulldog Caden (spirited warrior in Gaelic) would go down the dirt path of the master's favorite pub for a few pints. Caden would wait patiently under the bar enjoying table scraps. Late one evening on their way home Sean and Caden were attacked by a pack of wolves. Caden fought the wolves off saving his master but suffered a severe wound to one eye. Going forward Caden was considered a hero. Glasses of stout were lifted, and songs were sung in his honor. Every time Sean went to the pub in the evening thereafter, he would look at Caden and say, "C'mon old blind dog, let's have a pint". Years later a few locals decided to bring a wee bit of Ireland to this side of the pond. They established an authentic Celtic pub in the heart of Crabapple, Georgia and named it in honor of Caden.

Come sample the legend with an Irish holiday lunch buffet of:

- Broiled Salmon
- Blackened Chicken Pasta
- Corn Beef and cabbage, potatoes, carrots
- Seasonal vegetables
- Irish Cheese Grits
- Side salad
- Tea, Coffee, or Water

The pub cash bar has an exhausting array of beer on tap and can mix cocktails to order. Event cost is $29.00 per attendee. Please register by the evening of November 27, 2023 so the salmon can be caught, and the cow butchered for the corn beef.

TECHNICAL DIGEST

Finding Parts

I am often asked where I buy parts. The person asking is usually expecting a simple answer; one holy grail of a place to buy all parts. I have never found such a place.

For newer cars, FCP Euro can be a very good choice. Reasonable prices, choices of various brands, forever guarantee for the parts and reasonable shipping policies. I've also found they often don't have the harder to find parts. The other places I use most frequently are AutohausAZ and to a lesser extent Peach Parts, but you also won't usually find the more challenging parts there. For Peach Parts especially, you have to watch out for the shipping costs, which can be excessive. I sometimes also buy parts on Amazon, but you have to be careful with them; the descriptions aren't that good. On the other hand though, some Mercedes dealers sell through Amazon and you can find original Mercedes parts with free shipping.

Finding parts for the older cars can be particularly challenging. My typical strategy for new and old parts is to do an internet search for the part, either by its description or preferably by its part number. I get the part number either by reading it off the part, or by using Electronic Parts Catalog (EPC) to look it up. The on-line EPC seems to have gone away, but I have several copies of the Workshop Information System (WIS) I got off eBay and a STAR system clone and they all include EPC. EPC can be hard to use, with parts listed in counter-intuitive places and it sometimes doesn't match what's on the car. But having the part number is key to finding the part. Usually EPC will give you the correct part number, but the most trustworthy source is reading the number off the part on the car (this can be wrong too if someone has substituted an incorrect part). September 3, 2023 Halycon, Alpharetta

Our monthly Cars and Coffee met for September on a beautiful late summer morning. This month had a special treat for the drivers and spectators, as it was our 2nd annual joint event supported by our regular sponsor, Mercedes Benz Experience Center by RBM of Alpharetta and for this month, the AMG Private Lounge. The "PL" as its known is a place at the home of AMG in Affalterbach, Germany, for owners to meet, discuss all things AMG and with an appointment tour the AMG works. The PL extends its reach through a web forum exclusive to AMG owners. The site provides an entry point for exclusive merchandise, experiences, and events as well as a forum for owners to discuss their cars, driving experiences, the AMG Petronas F1 team and other topics of interest.

21 AMGs attended this month's event, along with another 20 classic and contemporary Mercedes Benz automobiles. Highlights included two AMG GTs and an SL65. PL members that had registered for the event on the PL Forum received a gift supplied by both the PL and our event sponsor the Mercedes Benz Experience Center by RBM of Alpharetta. I overheard many conversations about the great driving experiences that the AMG cars provide, as well as the best places to have rear tires replaced!

We intend to continue this event and would encourage our members that own AMGs to join the Private Lounge and register for our next-years event. To register go to <https://www.mercedes-amg.com/en/home-c.html> or scan the following QR code
